MOTORISTS SEE WILD GAME WHILE TOURING THE ADIRONDACKS

Increasing Number of Deer—Even Bears Glimpsed in Wildest Sections.

Social Functions Dovetailed Between Outdoor Sports—Tennis Last Week.

Young People Mountain Climbing—Visitors at Cottages and Hotels.

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., July 26.—A pronounced increase in the number of deer in the Adirondacks has been reported by motorists and water voyagers, but the rare treat of seeing a bear in its native haunts is granted only to a favored few. Motorists now penetrate the wildest sections of the mountains, and it was here that Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wright of Philadelphia saw three bears.

Mr. and Mrs. Steel left their camp on Lower Saranac Lake for a spin to Axton on the Raquette River. Returning they saw three bear swimming in the South Inlet of Upper Saranac Lake. Mr. Steel dived the big car and they hurried back to watch the progress of the bears. The three animals climbed leisurely out on the bank and proved to be an old bear and two cubs. A bear weighing nearly 300 pounds was killed near Amersand Pond and is believed to have been a member of this family.

Social functions have been dovetailed between tennis tournaments this week by members and friends of the Saranac Lake Country Club. On Tuesday and Wednesday the players assembled on the courts of R. H. Coleman's residence on Church street and contested in mixed doubles for a cup given by Mrs. Henry Clarke of Cleveland, a guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. P. Howell.

Tennis players of the club are to-day playing the finals of the two day tournament on the club courts at Amersand Bay, for which Miss Caroline K. Lee of New York has offered cups. The events are for men's singles and women's singles. The hostesses at the club tea this afternoon will be Miss Lee and Mrs. R. D. Peyster Tytus.

Bishop and Mrs. Walter H. Larom have opened their day camp on Lower Saranac

Lake and spend much of their time there. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Palmer of the Highland Park colony are spending a few days at Richmond, Va.

Camp Robinson on Algonquin avenue has been leased by Achel Hall of Oradell, N. J., and the Devarney cottage at 93 Algonquin avenue is taken by Francis Hawks of Fishkill, N. Y. Miss Gussie Hafferty has taken the Vosburgh cottage on River street.

Mrs. John C. Zwald and Mrs. Edward Hertzog and children of Birmingham, Ala., are visiting Dr. and Mrs. R. Prescott Morse on Franklin avenue.

Mrs. William Brown Lusk with her little daughters is a guest of Mrs. Carl Ely at Camp Potluck on Spittire Lake, where the party were joined this week by Henry L. Hotchkiss, who recently returned from Europe.

Bennett Frank of New York, who has been visiting his brother, Dr. Jerome Frank, at Riverside Inn, spent several days with his brother fishing for small mouthed black bass in Lower Saranac Lake. While fly casting for bass Dr. Frank hooked a large fish which proved to be a ten pound northern pike.

Honors in lake trout angling went to Charles Bechtel and C. O. Bechtel of Marion, Ind., this week. The anglers left Riverside Inn for Lake Clear and brought back eight lakers at the end of a day's work. The trout averaged five pounds each.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kopf, Miss Margaret Kopf and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mills of New York are touring the Adirondacks and making their headquarters at Riverside Inn.

The Village Improvement Society will hold its annual flower show on August 27 with special prizes and exhibits of fruit, flowers and vegetables.

They Are Having Mighty Good Times on the Shores of Upper Saranac

UPPER SARANAC, N. Y., July 26.—Throughout the day the summer colony at Saranac Inn on Upper Saranac Lake spreads out over the tennis courts, golf links, watercourses and woodland trails, and in the evening the guests are entertained by the young people and baseball has now been added to the amusements. The baseball at Saranac Inn is productive of much fun, for the teams are made up of visitors and employees at the hotel.

The annual fair for the benefit of the Adirondack Cottage Sanitarium at Trudeau will be held earlier than usual this year and the date has been fixed for August 9. The ladies of the committee are Mrs. Thomas H. Bladon of Camp Decatur, Mrs. Emma Bucknell of Pine Point, Mrs. L. Emmett Holt of Panther Point Lodge, Mrs. E. Van Zandt Lane of the Herter Camp, Miss Mary L. Lloyd of the Birch, Mrs. H. C. Tunkle of the Runkle Camp, Mrs. James R. Sheffield of the Sheffield Camp and Mrs. Edwin M. Bulkeley of Camp-of-the-Winds. The treasurer is Sydney M. Colgate of New York.

The Babette, Henry Goldman's beautiful new express boat, was successfully launched this week in the inn in the presence of 1,000 spectators. The boat is 54 feet in length and one of the most complete craft afloat in Adirondack waters. It will be entered in the annual racing event at the regatta here.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Work of Philadelphia, who are occupying the Wigwam, are giving their numerous guests a jolly time. Their entertainments are original and varied, and this week took the form of a fishing trip to Middle Saranac Lake in company with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Johnson and their camp guests.

Many of the inn anglers are visiting the Raquette River for the sporty bass fishing which its waters provide, and Fritz Lindemeyer of New York is now organizing a party. Robert Bentley, the iron man of Youngstown, Ohio, has been taking bass and lake trout, and Mrs. Lily McIlvaine of Brooklyn made a successful trip after the Raquette bass. Her catch included four bass weighing three pounds each.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Work have as their guests at the Wigwam Mrs. M. P. Hyslop, Miss Elizabeth De B. Welsh and Harry Keller.

George M. La Monte and A. D. La Monte of Bound Brook, N. J., motored up this week and joined friends at the inn. Miss Julia L. Wood and Francis Wood of Philadelphia, who have been regular visitors here for several seasons, have returned.

The New York colony at the inn has been augmented by the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gray, Mrs. H. F. Barrage, Miss Annette I. Steele, Mrs. Jack Langer, R. Wilson, Spencer Johnson, Edward E. Read, Mrs. C. O. Hall, Mrs. Lornell M. Palmer and Miss Enter, Miss Margaret Dale, the star, with her mother, Mrs. V. Dale, is at the inn and takes much interest in the Casino hops.

MASONS AND BANDS MAKE SACANDAGA REGION GAY

SACANDAGA, N. Y., July 26.—It has been the busiest week of the season at the resorts in the Sacandaga section of the Adirondacks because in addition to the summer visitors who are here several organizations, including the Masonic fraternity of the Nineteenth district and the Sons of St. George, spent a day at Sacandaga.

The Masonic fraternity was accompanied by three of the best bands in the State and the splendid musical programme rendered attracted a number of visitors from the nearby places.

At Adirondack Inn the grand ball under the auspices of the Apollo Commandery on Thursday night was one of the most brilliant affairs of the season, although the evening concert at which Miss Pearl Evans, soprano, is contributing, are attracting more attention than usual.

Among the many arrivals at Adirondack Inn during the past week are Thomas Pittblado and Miss Pittblado of Brooklyn, who have been here for several seasons and who are generally in the centre of a jolly crowd.

Ex-Mayor and Mrs. Henry Snyder are occupying their cottage at Sacandaga.

Andrew Moreland and A. S. Barker of New York are among the automobile enthusiasts who are generally in the centre of a jolly crowd.

Dr. and Mrs. F. Pla and son are also well known arrivals who will remain until September.

Among those registered within the past week are Mr. and Mrs. Knebel, Brooklyn; Mrs. J. Protfeldor and family, Mrs. Frederick, Miss Hassel, Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Barrett, Miss Barrett, Miss Helen Scott, C. W. Holloway, C. H. Maguire, W. T. Heeran, J. J. Teal, New York.

The Pines has been more lively than usual this week because of the increased arrival there. Among those registered there this week are Mr. and Mrs. J. Kaucan, Miss K. Hogan, Walter Clinton, J. A. Harper, B. A. Citron, Mr. and Mrs. W. Schreibeis, Le Roy Levi, L. Altman, New York.

Among the numerous motor visitors of the week were Mr. and Mrs. E. Dickinson, W. S. Dickinson, and E. B. Dickinson of New York.

LADIES' SPORTING EVENTS INTEREST COOPERSTOWN

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y., July 26.—Although tennis, golf and sailing contests have taken place at the Cooperstown Country Club with men as the contestants, last Tuesday was the opening day for the ladies' tennis and golf tournaments.

The Saturday evening concert at the O-to-sa-ga proved very interesting to the following O-to-sa-ga guests: Miss Helen Waldron, Mrs. L. A. Eldridge, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Jones, Miss Emmitt, Mr. and Mrs. William Braden, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Bigelow, Miss Wilkes and D. G. Gautier of New York city.

A very elaborate dinner was given at Ottago Hall Saturday evening by Mrs. Frederick A. Savage in honor of her daughter's birthday.

Among the guests at the Fenimore Hotel are Miss Marie Johnston, John A. Bowers and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cary of New York city.

DAILY AFTERNOON TEAS AT ST. REGIS RIVER GOLF CLUB

Clubhouse Centre of Social Life With Campers Around Paul Smith's Attractive Summer Homes Along the Shores Take on Air of Gayety.

PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., July 26.—With August approaching and the weather favorable, the campers and visitors along the St. Regis lakes are making daily pilgrimages to the grounds and house of the St. Regis River Golf Club. Tea is served each weekday afternoon and the clubhouse is becoming the social centre of life here. Members of the St. Regis Yacht Club have their own boats in commission and are daily skimming over the course on Upper St. Regis Lake.

Many prominent visitors have arrived at the camps along the chain of lakes and the attractive summer homes of the shores are taking on the air of seasonal gayety. At the Barney camp on Upper St. Regis Lake the arrivals are Mrs. Archibald S. Alexander, who has been a guest of Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney at Westbury, L. I., and Mr. and Mrs. Courtlandt T. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Rockefeller and their family are spending the summer at Bay Pond, the large Adirondack estate of William Rockefeller, where the aged capitalist spends much of his time.

Mrs. Anson Phelps Stokes with her daughter, Mrs. Ransom S. Hooker, has arrived for the season at Birch Island Camp.

Mrs. Robert P. Huntington, who has been coming here for upward of a score of years, has opened her beautiful summer place, Camp Almont, and has with her a grandson, Master Robert Huntington.

Mrs. Walter B. James came up from the shore and opened the James camp on Upper St. Regis Lake, where with the Misses James she will be joined by Dr. James and their son, Oliver James, who are now in Canada salmon fishing at the Restigouche Club.

Mrs. and Mrs. D. Hunter McAlpin are coming here to visit Mr. and Mrs. William Rockefeller at Bay Pond.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. B. T. Smith, who spent early July abroad, have arrived and opened their camp. John Seely Ward of New York is at the Ward Camp on Upper St. Regis Lake.

Mrs. Chester Glass of New York has completed her new bungalow camp on the St. Regis River and was joined there by Mrs. David Glass, Gordon Glass and her husband, Chester Glass, a corporation lawyer of New York city.

Francis Louis Slade is at Camp Underpines on Upper St. Regis and Dr. and Mrs. Thomas R. French of Brooklyn are at their camp. Mrs. Allan H. Dickson of Wilkesbarre is at Camp Kanerika with her daughter, Mrs. Frank G. Darte. Miss R. Augusta Polhemus of the Spitznagel colony gave a small luncheon this week.

Mrs. Albert J. Milbank of New York has opened her cottage at Paul Smith's. Dr. Frederick J. Barrett and E. C. Tourtelot, members of the summer colony here, are making daily trips to the golf links in a series of foursomes.

Among the numerous motor visitors of the week were Mr. and Mrs. E. Dickinson, W. S. Dickinson, and E. B. Dickinson of New York.

enacted in Congress Spring Park the episodes of other years, which comprised the Pageant of Saratoga. Mingled with the scenes from the past were bits of the symbolic Saratoga of the future, the two comprising an event which attracted thousands of visitors during the three days in which the pageant took place. The pageant was produced in the outdoor amphitheatre formed by nature in the park, against a background of forest trees, wooded hills and winding paths. In the evening myriads of electric lights added to the effect, while a chorus of two hundred and fifty voices furnished the incidental music to the accompaniment of Cartland's band. Colors ran riot in the scenes, ranging from the dull garb of the early Dutch settlers and the browns or reds of the Indians to the quaint gowns and tall hats of the early '80s at the local hotels. The event was given by the Business Men's Association, under the direction of Miss Margaret MacLaren Eager.

RICHFIELD SPRINGS STILL FAVORS AUCTION BRIDGE

RICHFIELD SPRINGS, July 26.—As the season at Richfield Springs advances the playing seems to grow more popular. Especially is this so among the ladies at this resort. A number of parties have taken place recently at the different rooms and the Waiontha Country Club.

The trotting races at Richfield are still attracting large crowds at the driving park every Wednesday and Saturday afternoon. The card presented Saturday proved to be exceptionally interesting and it required four heats to decide the 2:34 class.

Mr. and Mrs. George Upsal, who are very prominent among the guests who visit Richfield Springs, arrived at the Tulier Saturday evening to remain for the rest of the summer.

Among the recent arrivals at the Earlington are: Miss Helen Laselle, E. Siegel, E. B. Van Wermer, Mrs. Van Wermer, Mr. George Mott and Mrs. E. Dreyfus.

TOUR BY WATER AND MOTOR AT LAKE CHAMPLAIN

WESTPORT, N. Y., July 26.—Touring by water as well as automobile is favored by visitors to the Lake Champlain region and many boats of different type have dropped anchor in Westport harbor for a stay of several days. One of the largest of these was the 45 foot cabin yacht Allana of the Columbia Yacht Club with Mr. and Mrs. E. D. White of Riverside Drive and Mrs. E. D. White of Riverside Drive and Mrs. E. D. White of Riverside Drive.

Miss Nan Templeton, Miss Aileen Templeton, Miss Blanch Dillon, Miss Ehel Dillon, Miss Jessie Koewine and H. Pierson Burt. The merry party joined in the social life at Westport Inn and after a week's stay here left for northern ports.

Mrs. Robertso n Marshall entertained a number of the young people of Westport with a dinner at Hunters Home in the Adirondacks. Miss Mary Lee was hostess at a picnic given at the new reservoir, with a number of young people as her guests.

Social functions are secondary to baseball now with two days a week given over to the national game. Many of the spectators come by automobile from nearby summer homes or resorts.

Arthur Hinds of New York, who is occupying one of the shore places, is adding tennis courts and entertaining a party of New York friends.

Dr. Harry Barremore of New York is visiting his mother at Broad View Cottage. Early in the week Dr. Barremore saw two young men and a canoe in what appeared to be a dangerous predicament. The craft kept continually overturning as the young men crawled back into it. Dr. Barremore rushed to the rescue only to find two expert swimmers practising in the handling of a cranky canoe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Daggett of New York have returned to the inn and Mr. Daggett is exploring the many walks about Westport.

FIRST LAKE PLACID DINNER DANCE AN UNUSUAL SUCCESS

Accident Ends Picnic Party When Dock Gives Way—None Hurt.

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., July 26.—An accident that might have proved serious had not help been close at hand furnished an unexpected termination to an otherwise very enjoyable picnic given early in the week by Clifford Herbert, son of Victor Herbert, the composer.

The party of young people, including Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wells, Miss Olive Bain and Miss Herbert, R. H. Treadway, Roy Carney, Raymond Stevens and the younger Mr. Herbert, had spent a very enjoyable afternoon at Picnic Point on Lake Placid, chaperoned by Mrs. Herbert, and were just effecting a landing at Camp Joyland, the Herbert summer place, when a portion of the dock upon which were Miss Herbert and Mrs. Wells gave way and floated out into the lake, where it overturned, throwing the young women into the water.

Both Miss Herbert and Mrs. Wells are good swimmers, but they were handicapped by their dresses and were having a bad time of it when Mr. Wells plunged into the lake in his street clothes and assisted them ashore.

Miss Bain is the camp guest of Miss Herbert. Victor Herbert returned this week from Philadelphia and will spend the rest of the season here.

The first of the dinner dances of the season with which the members of the summer colony will entertain through August will be given soon at the Lake Placid Yacht Club house by Mr. and Mrs. William L. Supplee. The Saturday afternoon teas at the yacht club are to be resumed to-day when the second in the series of sailing races for the challenge cup will take place. The first race in the series was won by Clinton Norton, son of the Rev. R. H. Norton of Brooklyn. E. C. Jameson of New York, the present holder of the cup, finished in second place, and E. C. Seligman, son of Prof. E. R. A. Seligman of Columbia University, in third.

Early in the week Associate Justice Charles E. Hughes, who is at Camp Decatur on Moose Island, with his family, paid a visit to the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst, who is spending the summer here with Mrs. Parkhurst at Reposo bungalow on the heights above Mirror Lake.

Booker T. Washington, who is one of the arrivals of the week at the Placid Club, will address a meeting here to-morrow. Dean Edward H. Griffin of Johns Hopkins University is another of the recent arrivals here.

At an afternoon of chamber music in the parish house on Monday for the benefit of the Episcopal Church Rectory fund Mrs. Anna Taylor Jones is to sing.

J. P. McMahon of Brooklyn, crack tennis player in the Kings County Tennis Club, was one of the recent arrivals at the Stevens House, his leased Paradox cottage on the hotel grounds for the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodwin of New York were the week end guests of Mrs. J. Peck at that hotel. C. E. Kelly of New York is the guest of E. T. Kennel.

Mrs. James P. Silo, who was among those from New York returning to the Stevens House this week, came up accompanied by the Misses Silo. They will be joined later by Mr. Silo and his sons, who are touring Europe.

Mrs. Charles Orten Hall of New York gave one of the small dinner parties at the Grand View Hotel, covers being laid for ten. Mrs. Henry Baldwin Fischer of New York was winner at the card party of the week. Mrs. Silo gave a bridge party for several friends in a party from the Grand View Hotel.

The ascent of Mount Whiteface was made by the Stevens House party, who were accompanied by the Stevens House party, who were accompanied by the Stevens House party.

Even Greater Interest in Polo Among Those at Alexandria Bay

ALEXANDRIA BAY, July 26.—The dinner dances at the Thousand Island Yacht Club are steadily growing in popularity and are attracting the smartest society at the summer colony at the Thousand Islands and their house guests.

Among those who entertained at the Yacht Club during the last week were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Coppell, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Rees, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson P. Rose, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dwyne, Mr. and Mrs. John Divine, Louis Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L.
